29.2. It is understood by the parties to the Agreement that the obligations undertaken by them in this Agreement are to be interpreted in good faith and in accordance with the principles of international law.

29.3. The provisions of this Agreement are intended to be interpreted in such a way as to give full effect to the provisions of the Agreement and to provide for the full and effective implementation of the Agreement.

The Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties and shall be binding on their successors in title and assigns.

The Agreement may be amended or modified by agreement between the Parties, but no amendment or modification shall be invalid if it is in accordance with the principles of international law.

The Agreement shall come into force on the date on which it is signed by the Parties, and shall remain in force for a period of ten years, unless terminated earlier by agreement between the Parties.
