

Invitation to Side Events

United Nations Human Rights Council 25th Session

NGO Monitor, on behalf of the Amuta (Civil Society Organization) for NGO Responsibility Cordially invites you to two Side Events during the United Nations Human Rights Council 25th session:

Obstacles to Arab-Israeli Peace

Mr. Hillel C. Neuer, UN Watch Executive Director- “The role of the UN in the Arab-Israeli conflict”

Dr. Einat Wilf, Former Member of the Israeli Knesset- “The role of UNRWA in the Arab-Israeli conflict”

Prof. Gerald Steinberg, Bar Ilan University and President of NGO Monitor- “The role of EU & European government funding to civil society organizations active in the Arab-Israeli conflict”

Date: Monday, March 24, 2014

Time: 14:00-16:00

Location: Room XXII, Palais Des Nations, United Nations Office at Geneva, Switzerland

Women’s Rights in the Middle East

Anne Herzberg, Legal Advisor of NGO Monitor

Dr. Einat Wilf, Former Member of the Israeli Knesset

Date: Tuesday, March 25, 2014

Time: 14:00-16:00

Location: Room XXIV, Palais Des Nations, United Nations Office at Geneva, Switzerland

The public is invited. Please RSVP by March 20th: Emily Ziedman | +972-2-566-1020 | Emily.Ziedman@ngo-monitor.org

Sponsored by:

- The Amuta for NGO Responsibility (R.A 580465508) is in Special Consultative Status with the UN Economic and Social Council since 2013.
- NGO Monitor (www.ngo-monitor.org), is a project of the Amuta for NGO Responsibility, and the leading source of expertise on the activities and funding of political advocacy NGOs (non-governmental organizations) involved in the Arab-Israeli conflict.