

Ms. Margot Wallström,
Minister for Foreign Affairs,
Stockholm, Sweden

June 1, 2017

Dear Ms. Wallström,

Sweden is one of four donor countries contributing to the Human Rights and International Humanitarian Law Secretariat (Secretariat), a funding mechanism that has disbursed grants to a number of Palestinian non-governmental organizations (NGOs) that incite violence, promote antisemitism, and/or have ties to terrorist organizations.

Recent developments have brought the issue of Secretariat funding to the fore.

In May 2017, a Secretariat-funded NGO, Women's Affairs Technical Committee (WATC), inaugurated a youth center for girls in the town of Burqa, near Nablus. The center is named after Dalal Mughrabi, a terrorist who in 1978 murdered 37 civilians, including 12 children. WATC's logo is prominently featured on the center's building. While Norway and the United Nations have both withdrawn their support and demanded their logos be removed, WATC has not done so to date.

It is important to add in this context that Norway briefly joined the Secretariat in the second half of 2016, before withdrawing.

Similarly, Denmark has ordered a thorough review of grantee activities in order to ensure funding is not allocated to groups that incite hatred and violence.

Indeed, WATC is not the only instance of Secretariat funding to organizations that glorify terrorism or employ violent rhetoric. The Palestinian organization Women's Center for Legal Aid and Counseling (WCLAC) received $710,000 in core funding from the Secretariat. WCLAC fieldworker Manal Tamimi tweeted (August 1, 2015), "I do hate Israel ,i (sic) wish a thrid Intefada (sic) coming soon and people rais (sic) up and kills all these zionist settlers everywhere." In September 2015, on Yom Kippur (a fast day and the holiest day of the year in the Jewish calendar), Tamimi tweeted: "Vampire zionist celebrating their Kebore day by drinking Palestinian bloods, yes our blood is pure & delicious but it will kill u at the end."

Far from condemning her actions, WCLAC filed a complaint to the United Nations over the “Frequent targeting of Palestinian human rights defender: Mrs. Manal Tamimi.”¹

We urge Sweden to follow Denmark’s example and review the activities of Secretariat grantees so as to prevent further Swedish funding to such organizations.

Sincerely,

Prof. Gerald M. Steinberg
President

Olga Deutsch
Europe Desk Director

CC: Ms. Isabella Lövin, Minister for International Development Cooperation
H.E. Carl Magnus Nesser, Swedish Ambassador to Israel

¹ Following a complaint filed by NGO Monitor to the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights regarding Tamimi’s virulently antisemitic and violent rhetoric, the Office of the High Commissioner removed her from a UN report that had listed her as a “human rights defender”.