השלמת מסמכים מטעם ידיד בית המשפט

בהמשך לדיון שהתקיים ביום 11 במרץ 2019, ובהתאם להחלטת כב' בית המשפט, מתכבד ידיד בית המשפט להגיש את ריכוז הציוציו של העותר מס' 2 החל מיום 25 ליוני 2018 ועד ליום 10 למרץ 2019.

שנית, ולא פחות חשוב, חשבון הטוויטר שבשימוש העותר נפתח בחודש ינואר בשנת 2011, למעלה משש שנים לפני שהחל העותר מס' 2 למלא את תפקידו הנוכחי.

- 3) “Tomorrow @hrw & I back in Jerusalem District Court for likely final hearing in our challenge to Israel’s deportation order against me over my human rights advocacy. Stakes high: if intl community can’t stop deportation of someone documenting abuses, how will it ever stop abuses?” (Twitter, Mar 10)
- 4) “Original deportation order (https://www.hrw.org/sites/default/files/supporting_resources/moi_revocation_decision_english_redacted.pdf ...) focused on my pre-HRW advocacy. But because law requires active boycott support, govt court submissions focus on my promotion of HRW research on business operating in settlements (see eg, pg 84 in govt reply brief filed in Jan)” (Twitter, Mar 10)
- 5) “Thanks. The May notice both cancelled my work permit & ordered me to leave within 14 days. Our work documenting abuses by businesses in settlements, at the heart of the gov's case, is part of our global work on business & human rights. It's human rights advocacy, not BDS activism” (Twitter, Mar 10)
- 6) “Update: Israeli gov filed 120pg formal response brief in my/@hrw case. They continue to insist on deporting me over my human rights work. Jerusalem District Court will soon

- hold hearing & decision to follow. Court-ordered injunction that allows me to stay remains in place for now” (Twitter, Jan 13)
- 7) “Among things cited in the govt's brief in my deportation case? Our recent report on @Airbnb. This is but the latest in years-long campaign to muzzle @hrw. They have yet to succeed. And they won't.” (Twitter, Jan 13)
 - 8) “Israeli gov today asked Jerusalem court to delay Nov 1 hearing in my deportation case so it can study implications of Supreme Court's decision to allow Lara alQasem in after she was denied for alleged BDS support & held at airport 2 weeks. - 75) Retweet of Nickolay E. Mladenov: “Today’s violence in #AlMughayer is shocking & unacceptable! #Israel must put an end to settler violence & bring those responsible to justice. My thoughts & prayers go out to the family of the #Palestinian man killed & those injured. All must condemn violence, stand up to terror.” (Twitter, Jan 26)

- 76) Retweet of Democracy Now!: “BREAKING: The Birmingham Civil Rights Institute (@bhamcivilrights) board has voted to reaffirm leading activist and scholar Angela Davis as the recipient of its Fred Shuttlesworth Human Rights Award, after previously rescinding the award over her activism for Palestinian rights” (Twitter, Jan 25)
- 77) Retweet of Tania Hary: “Spent time in Brussels this week & was surprised to learn that after Syrians, Palestinians from Gaza are the largest group of new arrivals requesting asylum. Rafah's opening had allowed 1000s out in search of safety. It's also indicative of how bad life has become in the Strip.” (Twitter, Jan 25)
- 78) Retweet of EU in Israel: “5/ The EU stands firm in protecting freedom of expression, also applicable to information or ideas "that offend, shock or disturb the State or any sector of the population". Any action that has the effect of closing the space for civil society organisations should be avoided.” (Twitter, Jan 23)
- 79) Retweet of EU in Israel: “1/ New allegations have been made by Israeli entities against the EU and its support to NGOs. Allegations of the EU supporting incitement or terror, or condoning antisemitism, are unfounded and unacceptable.” (Twitter, Jan 23)
- 80) Retweet of Addameer: “Israeli Special Force Unit, Massada, raids Ofer prison on 20 - 21 January 2019. Prisoners are refusing their meals and their recreational time in protest to these intense gross raids.” (Twitter, Jan 22)
- 81) Retweet of Taif Alkhudary: “.@sarahleah1 opens the launch of the @hrw world report by reminding that we are in #LDN because many #MENA countries are “virtual cages”, esp. #Saudi, #Bahrain & #Gaza. Citizens & #HRDs can't go in or out & subjected to arbitrary travel bans.” (Twitter, Jan 22)
- 82) Retweet of HRW: “Thousands and thousands of Arabs are travel banned, just because, in Saudi, Bahrain, and Egypt; over a million Gazans are caged in their tiny territory. Yemenis have nowhere to flee, to escape the war devastating their country. But it's not just that they can't get out.” (Twitter, Jan 22)
- 83) Retweet of PHRI: “More than 430 patients were not granted exit permits for medical treatment outside of Gaza this year because of concerns that they would not return to Gaza. There is no security justification for preventing their exit.” (Twitter, Jan 22)
- 84) Retweet of Matt Duss: “Alexander's piece is a sign of where the US discussion on Israel-Palestine is moving. Oren's response is a sign of the freak outs we can expect as the pro-occupation side continues to lose control of the debate.” (Twitter, Jan 21)
- 85) Retweet of Josh Nathan-Kazis (Forward): “Here's Michael Oren, former Israeli ambassador to the U.S. and current deputy minister for public diplomacy, calling a New York Times op-ed a "strategic threat" against which Israel "has to take serious steps to defend itself.” (Twitter, Jan 21)

- 86) Retweet of Sari Bashi: “This is what happens when the @nytimes (finally) hires a woman of color as a columnist - honest critique of Israeli policy and US support for it, with empathy and in the legacy of Martin Luther King Jr.'s love of humanity:” (Twitter, Jan 21)
- 87) Retweet of WHO in oPt: “WHO is concerned over the potential impact the evolving fuel crisis in #Gaza might have on the lives and health of patients whose treatment requires uninterrupted power supply if no immediate solution to address the aggravating shortages is found.
<http://bit.ly/2FNPU1G> “ (Twitter, Jan 21)
- 88) Retweet of Glenn Greenwald: “The brilliant Michelle Alexander shows why her hiring as a NYT columnist was the most important in years: she invokes the philosophy of MLK to urge full-scale action on "one of the great moral challenges of our time": oppression of Palestinians by Israel” (Twitter, Jan 19)
- 89) Retweet of Simone Zimmerman: “This is an incredible call to moral clarity from the one and only Michelle Alexander about the need to honor MLK’s legacy and speak out in support of Palestinian rights in @nytimes <https://nyti.ms/2HmAeVx> “ (Twitter, Jan 19)
- 90) Retweet of Noura Erakat: “Thank you Michelle Alexander for being absolutely unequivocal in your moral clarity as you are in holding a tremendous amount of complexity and nuance. We are human and therefore all of this.

- 243) Retweet of Allistair Burt: “Today I announced an additional £7 million of #UKaid for @UNRWA. This helps ensure Palestinians can continue to access vital healthcare and education. The international community must follow our lead and step up support to ensure vital services aren't interrupted.” (Twitter, Sept 4)
- 244) Retweet of Nicholas Burns: “Eliminating aid to Palestinians is heartless and unwise. I helped to coordinate U.S. aid on the West Bank+East Jerusalem in the 1980s. The great majority of Palestinians are good people denied justice. We dishonor the U.S. by abandoning them.” (Twitter, Sept 1)
- 245) Retweet of Jeremy Corbyn: “Shameful for the US to end its funding for UNRWA, a vital UN refugee agency. The UK must help to fill the gap by boosting its contributions.

- Support for Palestinian refugees is a vital commitment until there is a just and viable settlement of the Israel-Palestine conflict.” (Twitter, Sept 1)
- 246) Retweet of Lara Friedman: “The reality is that Palestinians’ critical humanitarian needs are due to ongoing, human-made policies that are part of an overarching human-made, human-perpetuated political conflict - not a natural disaster. 4/” (Twitter, Sept 1)
- 247) Retweet of Carl Skau: “Regrettable decision by one of the most generous donor of @UNRWA. Important to urgently mobilise support from elsewhere. Half a million Palestinian children depend on our solidarity.” (Twitter, Aug 31)
